

Middle Tennessee State University Diversity Dissertation Fellowship, Faculty

Job Title

Department

Academic Support Service Provost

University Expectation

MTSU seeks candidates who are committed to innovative teaching and meaningful service. We also seek to attract a culturally and academically diverse faculty who value working with a diverse student body. Candidates for these positions must be members of underrepresented racial/ethnic minorities.

Salary

$40,000

Job Summary/Basic Function

Middle Tennessee State University invites applicants for three full-time, Diversity Dissertation Fellows (#101120, #104280, #112160). Hosted by a department in their discipline, MTSU Diversity Dissertation Fellows teach one course each semester in a subject related to their research and devote significant time to completing their dissertation. The Diversity Dissertation Fellowship is a full-time position. Fellows may not hold another position simultaneously during their fellowship year. Successful candidates receive temporary full-time, non-tenure-track faculty appointments (August 1 - July 31) and are eligible for benefits, including health insurance. Positions are contingent upon funding.

In addition to salary, Fellows receive support for research, professional travel, and other related expenses. International applicants must be eligible for employment.

Required Education

Applicants must have passed all comprehensive examinations and be at the dissertation writing stage in a field taught at MTSU.

Other Desirables

Special consideration will be given to applicants from institutions other than MTSU.

Documents Needed to Apply

To successfully apply for these open positions, visit <http://careers.mtsu.edu/> and follow the instructions, attach the required documents listed below, and submit your application online:

1. A cover letter
2. A curriculum vitae (showing experience/understanding of diversity issues in higher education)
3. Dissertation abstract and a timeline for completing the dissertation submitted as a single document as Other Document 1.
4. Verification of doctoral candidacy submitted as Other Document 2.

Application/documents received by the review date will receive full consideration; however, the posting remains open, and applications MAY be submitted until the position is filled.
